Vienna, Nov. 2, N. S. The laſt Letters from Niemerow, which were of the 17th paſt, have brought an Account of the Turkiſh Plenipotentiaries having declared there, that the Porte, not thinking the Propoſitions made by the Emperor and the Czarina of a Nature to be accepted, they looked upon the Congreſs as broke up, and would quit that Place on the 20th paſt, in order to return to Conſtantinople; whereupon the Emperor's Plenipotentiaries had immediately ſent away a Courier to inform this Court, that they would likewiſe depart from Niemerow, and retire to Lemberg, to wait there for further Orders from hence. Count Kevenhuller being in a very bad State of Health, has deſired and obtained Leave to come hither, and is expected very ſhortly. Count Seckendorff being arrived here from the Army, has been forbidden to go out of his Houſe: He received Yeſterday from the Council of War, ſeveral Points of Accuſations in Writing, to which he has already given an Anſwer this Morning. The Great Duke's Departure for Tuſcany is fixed for the 18th of January next, and his Dutcheſs deſigns to accompany him thither.

Hague, Nov. 15, N. S. Advices are come hither from Vienna, that the Town of Niſſa ſurrendred to the Turks on the 22d of October, without making any Defence, for Want, 'twas ſaid, of Proviſions and Ammunition; having obtained the ſame Capitulation as the Turks when they delivered up that Place to the Imperialiſts. That Count Seckendorff was confined to his Houſe at Vienna, and likewiſe General Schmettau put under Arreſt at Breſlaw, whither he was gone. Letters from Caminieck relate, that the Congreſs at Niemerow was diſſolved, the Turkiſh Plenipotentiaries having retired from that Place on the 20th of October, and the Imperialiſts and Muſcovites the 22d.
